Beauty Clinic Gives Women Ten Accepted By 'Who's Who'

'Best-Face-Forward' Advice

By Millie Schults

Beauty and make-up were the chief topics for discussion among Wartburg women this week. The reason for this sudden interest was the series of lectures and demonstrations on beauty care given here Wednesday and Thursday by Sue Marx, representative of the college board of Revlon Cosmetics, New York City.

Purpose of the lectures was to make women aware of their beauty.

"Beauty includes charm, poise and good grooming," said Miss Marx. "You should try to improve yourself by staying neat. Be poised by standing erect, having good posture and an alert attitude."

According to Miss Marx, it is these factors, along with neatness and cleanliness, that make a person attractive to others. Special emphasis was also given to the care of the complexion and fingernails.

'Make-Up Not Mask'

"Put your best face forward," stated the beauty expert, stressing the importance of make-up. "Make-up should not be worn as a mask, hiding the natural beauty, but should be blended evenly over the face to enhance the good features and minimize the poor." "Beauty is common to all students and many varied. Probably the most sensible argument against the extensive use of make-up was raised by Jean Budde.

'Variety Expensive'

"If you've got about $25 to spend on a lot of cosmetics, it's okay," remarked the sophisticated teacher, "but I'll be satisfied with just lipstick—one color and one shade."

Typical of the feelings of many Wartburg males toward the subject was the comment made by an anonymous Knight:

"I just can't see a woman getting painted up with artificial face."

'Den May Lose Business'

In contrast to this, Ronnie Reiter, sophomore, claimed, "Make-up is all right to a certain extent—I know that some women would look horrible without it."

"The Den will probably lose business now," was the comment voiced by a sophomore coed. "According to Miss Marx, women are not supposed to eat greasy or salty foods or ice cream if they are to keep complexion."

Overall consensus of students was that the demonstrations and lectures were both interesting and helpful. Some coeds expressed the wish that make studies besides those in the freshman orientation class could have gotten in on some of the lectures—especially the hairdressing, fingernail and complexion care.

Silk Prints Featured In 1st Art Exhibit

An exhibit of silk print prints by Woody Crumb, an American Indian living at Tsoo, N. Mex., will go on display tomorrow at 8 p.m. on the second floor of Luther hall as the first outside art exhibit of the year.

Ten will be served from 2-4 p.m. tomorrow, with members of Wartburg art classes acting as hosts, at the official opening of the exhibition. All are invited to attend, according to Miss Helen Wright, head of the art department, which is sponsoring the display.

Lasting two weeks, the exhibit will consist mainly of Indian designs stenciled on a silk base. Everything being shown will be

LL Plans Supper

Campus Luther Leaguers will serve a cost supper at 8:15 p.m. tomorrow in the cafeteria, according to Ed Paape, sophomore president. Following the supper, Reuben Schults, sophomore, will lead a discussion on the national presidential campaign.

Liemohn To Speak

Dr. Edwin Liemohn, head of the Wartburg division of fine arts, will speak on church music at the Northern Illinois Sunday School Workers conference, to be held tomorrow at Sterling, Ill.

Miss Haefner To Wed Today

Helene Haefner

Miss Helene Haefner, assistant librarian here since 1948, will be married this afternoon at 3:30 to the Rev. John T. Meyer, La Moille, Ill., at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Waverly.

Dr. W. F. Schmidt of St. Paul's will officiate at the ceremony and Dr. Alfred Haefner, dean of faculty here, will deliver the wedding sermon and give his sister in marriage.

Miss Haefner received her degree of B. S. in library science from the University of Minnesota in 1948 after graduating from Wartburg college in 1946. Mr. Meyer is a graduate of both Wartburg college, Clinton, Wartburg seminary, Dubuque, and is presently serving as pastor of Zion Lutheran church, La Moille, Ill.

After a honeymoon wedding trip to St. Louis, Mo., the couple will reside at La Moille.

Bob Snyder, Fred Voss To Attend NAEB Meet

Bob Snyder, senior and KWAR station manager, and Fred Voss, sophomore, will represent Wartburg college and KWAR at the National Association of Educational Broadcasters convention to be held in Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 28.

Thomas for the convention will be "An Educational Television Progress Report" and "How Can Educational Radio Compete with Television."

Among the features of the program will be a Minneapolis Symphony concert and a smorgasbord. Outstanding speakers scheduled to appear are Hubert H. Humphrey, U.S. senator from Minnesota, and Paul A. Walker, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission.

Directories Due Mon., Delayed At Printers

Latest word from publishers of the campus directory indicates that the book should arrive Monday, Nov. 3, according to Rudy Kolberg, president of Alpha Phi Gamma.

Production of the directories was held up two weeks by illness in the family of the operator of the lithograph press at which the directories are printed.

Pepsters Will Display Loop School Pennants

Pep club decided at a recent meeting to hang pennants in the Knights gymnasium representing all Iowa conference schools during the coming basketball season. Officers for the current school year were also selected at the meeting.

Colleges included in the display will be Luther, Upper Iowa, Loras, Westminster, Buena Vista and Wartburg of the North division, and Dubuque, St. Ambrose, Iowa Wesleyan, Simpson, Central, Ansonia and Pella of the South division.

Chosen as vice-president of the pepsters was Harry Feistner, senior, while Ron Reinfelder, sophomore, was elected treasurer and Delores Gager, freshman, secretary. Blaindahl, sophomore, chosen last spring, is president of the group.

By Maurice Juncos

Letters of acceptance were received this week by the 10 seniors recently nominated to 'Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities,' according to information released by John Kelley, student body president.

Those receiving the honor are Bill Adix, Manchester; Jack Bostrack, Slough, Wis.; Durwood Buchheim, Humboldt, S. D.; David Geske, Melvin; Bernice Hilmer, Dyar, John Kelley, Davenport; Rudy Kolberg, Edgar, Wis.; Chuck Lutz, Fontanelle; Marilyn McBride, Omaha, Neb., and Norm Wentz, Waterloo.

11-Piece Swing Combo Set For Engagements

Swing band, newcomer to campus music activities, released its membership this week. The 11-piece combo is now available for campus engagements.

Personnel of the group includes Ed Hutton and Floyd Ketterling, alto sax; Deane Koenig and Bill Dreckthart, tenor sax; Jim Matlack and Harvey Diehl, trumpet; Ken Vetter and Roy Strong, trombone; Elden Reissler, string bass; Roger Winnie, drums; and Rudy Inselmann, piano.

Organized last month by Ernest Hagen, instrumental music head, the group has already made several appearances.

Fortress Gives Schedule Of Group Pix

Following is the schedule for organization pictures to be taken tomorrow afternoon in the Knights gymnasium, as released by Rudy Kolberg, editor of the annual. Groups are asked to appear five minutes early to enable the photographer to work on schedule.

Becker Recovering

Fred C. H. Becker, who has been convalescing at his home for the past 10 days recovering from injuries received in an automobile accident Oct. 21, plans to be back in his office sometime next week to carry on his duties in a limited capacity.

'Little Foxes' Cast Relaxes

Cast of "Little Foxes," scheduled to open next Friday at 8 p.m. in the Little Theater, relax with coffee and cake in the Den following a recent rehearsal session. Seated around the tables—left to right—are Director Ray Wilderman, LeVonne Otto, M. Schult, Maurine Jacobsen, Hank Diers, Glory Wisbeck, Ronald Hoffmann, Olga Hamilton, Dan Voecks, Bob Vogel, Carl Knitt and Tennie Wuebbens.

Adix is a pre-med majoring in biology. He manages to use his 6'5" to good advantage on the basketball floor, as evidenced by his court record last year. Bill was high-point man in the conference. He is vice-president of the "W" club and secretary-treasurer of Tri-Beta, national honorary biology fraternity.

Bostrack Welcomes Letterman

A future teacher majoring in biology, Bostrack is another senior who shines on the hardwood. Commonly referred to as "Bud," Bostrack transferred from Augustana college as a junior. He is pre-the majoring in sociology.

Buchheim seems to like the work of vice-presidents, as he filled that post for the junior class last year and the Student Senate this year. He is also student body president.

Planning for graduate school, Geske, chemistry major, has been active here in student government. Dyer was president of the freshman class and is now vice-president of Science club. He has also served on Student Senate.

Hilmer Music Major

Active in dramatics and music, Hilmer, who was an attendant in the first homecoming Queen's court, is a music major in education. She has been in Wartburg choir four years and leads the Knights Chorus as student director. Bernie is also secretary of the Student Senate.

Known for his outstanding service in student government, Kelley is pre-the majoring in biology. He acts as president of the student body and is also chairman of the student council. Kelley, John was treasurer of Student Senate in his junior year.

Kolberg, editor of the '53 Fortress, is a pre-the majoring in English. President of Alpha Phi Gamma, national literary journalism fraternity, he has also been a member of the TRUMPET staff.

Lutz Music Too

Editor-in-chief of the TRUMPET, Lutz is also active in the field of music. He sang with Wartburg choir last year and is in the band for two years and now plays in the newly-organized choir. He is a member of Alpha Phi Gamma, having served as president last year. Lutz is a pre-the majoring in English.

An outstanding accompanist, Marilyn McBride plans to graduate next year and study in a major in Christianity. She is president of Wartburg Women's Coordinating board, secretary of the senior class and of Faculty-Student Activities committee.

Acting as senior class president this year, Wentz came here at a junior. He is a pre-the majoring in English. Last year, Norm was student head of the Artist Series committee.

Christmas Card Sales Started By Juniors

Religious Christmas cards, assorted, colored and with Bible verses, are now being sold by the members of the junior class, according to Kenneth Vetter, junior, in charge of sales.

Cards are sold every year to help defray expenses of the Junior-Senior banquet. The price is 75 cents for a box of 15.

Are Chimes Being Used?

Guest editorial by Roland Belanger

"Say, Bill, do they play chimes every night at this time?"
 "That's the signal for nightly devotions."
 "Is that what they're for? Are they tradition here at Wartburg?"

"Well, Ed, it's this way. About a year and a half ago when Rev. Warren Schmidt was here for Spiritual Emphasis week they were first played at 10:30 and 10:45. Then the purpose of playing them at those times was to signify a quiet period, so that those who wanted to hold devotions could have it quiet. My roommate and I never use that period for our devotions, we have ours just before we go to bed. Very few people like the 10:30 to 10:45 here, in fact, no one does in this dorm. I believe the same situation exists in the other dorms."

"Then why play them at that time?"

"Well, you see, Ed, it would be hard to find the right time to play them, as people here go to bed at all hours. No one seems to want to interrupt his studying to hold devotions."

"It must be quite a waste of time for the fellows who play them. If no one uses that period for devotions, why play the chimes at all?"

"They give the campus a Christian atmosphere."

"Bill, if they are just played for atmosphere they could be played earlier in the evening instead of the late hour."

The question is—do we want the chimes played at that time? We all know that the devotional period from 10:30 to 10:45 is used by only a few and even by these few seldom. Someone has to interrupt his studies to play the chimes—are we wasting his time? Do we need them?

Dr. Hulme, college chaplain, and the students in charge would like to have some idea of the general campus feeling on this question. Talk about it; then express yourself. CHIMES—OR NO CHIMES?

Voice Of The Campus

PASTOR OBJECTS TO INDICTMENT OF ULC

Dear Editor:

It is surprising how many young people dare express themselves on a matter of which they are lacking sufficient information. As an assistant pastor of the United Luther church I would like to say to certain students to convince me of its liberality.

Do they consider the proclamation of the Word of God a breach of orthodoxy or a deviation from the confessional writings of our Lutheran church to which it belong all the different bodies in this country? It would indeed be advisable for these people to read the history of the United Luther church in Waverly, Iowa, in the college library—or proceedings of the ULC convention held recently at Seattle in order to get a more comprehensive picture of the history of the United Lutheran church.

Are the members of this oldest and largest synod tainted with liberalism because they overabundant the synod for Christian higher education by one and one-half million dollars? Or because they raise each year close to five million for mission and benevolent operations here and abroad?

Please advise me what causes you who criticize ULC, or by what you were influenced, to look upon us with such a suspicious glance of misinformed criticism.

Sincerely,

(signed) Otto Bergelder,

Retired pastor, Waverly

(Ed. note.—This letter refers to the merger opinion feature appearing in the ALC convention issue of the TRUMPET, Oct. 11.)

'KNIGHTS WON IN '42,' SAYS READER

Dear Editor:

First of all may I compliment you on the fine coverage you are giving Knight activities. Good work!

Then may I be so bold as to point out an error on page 6, Oct. 18 (homecoming issue). We best say 7-0, in 1942. Dumas Allen threw a TD pass to Elgin Allen and "Kig" kicked the extra point. That should be the series 7-7.

Sincerely,

(signed) Ray Don Louts

Grinnell, Iowa

(Ed. Note.—Mr. Louts is correct—the Knights did win in 1942. The all-time series now stands at 7-0 Waverly with one tie.)

COMMITTEE EXPLAINS FUND-ALLOCATION POLICY

Dear Editor:

Frequent requests are made to the Student Activities committee to approve certain sums of money spent by organizations for various school functions. Each request is taken up and carefully considered by the committee. If it is decided that the money has been used for the benefit of the student body, the allowance is made from the student activities fund.

The committee is willing to act upon such matters but is not inclined to approve each one. Therefore the committee requests that all organizations expecting to incur any expenses for an all-school function and wishing an allowance for such expenses make application in advance. Each organization should submit an estimate of expenses it expects to incur. This will eliminate disappointments that may result from the committee's exercising its right to deny requests after the expenses have been made.

AFTER LISTENING to all the political mind-sludging that's been going on recently, you would think that no one is fit to run for the presidency. Someone might discover a guy had put a slug in a peanut machine when he was five years old.

QUESTION in the minds of Wartburg women after the Eleanor Steber concert.

POLITICAL INQUIRY

By Bob Kodras

Your Vote Does Count!

Eisenhower-Nixon or Stevenson-Sparkman? Next week by this time we'll know the answers. This week climaxed the campaign, and the last efforts to win the marathon are now being made by both parties. The four-month period of speeches, mud-slinging, character assassination and income probes is nearly over for all—both the tired campaigners and the interested but exhausted public.

Before it all ends, however, we, the people, have one more duty—to vote. Certainly all of us who are of voting age and have the privilege of citizenship should vote.

Although voting is becoming more and more popular, there are still people who think, "No! I only have one vote. That counts practically nothing." To these people I dedicate the following paragraphs which can be acquired by a single vote.

Thomas Jefferson was elected President by just one vote in the electoral college. The same happened to John Quincy Adams.

Rutherford B. Hayes was elected President by one vote, that vote being cast by a congressman from Indiana, who himself was elected to Congress by a single vote. This vote, believe it or not, came from one of his clients, Jim in bed, who insisted upon being taken to the polls.

One vote may decide the entire make-up of the electoral college of a state. A plurality, that is, the greatest number of popular votes cast, decides whether the electoral college of your state is going to be Democratic, Republican, or a third party. This plurality can be acquired by a single vote.

In the 1948 election, one more Republican vote from each of the 8,000 precincts in New York state would have carried the state for Dewey instead of for Truman.

Yes, one vote does count!

Eisenhower Choice Of Student Bodies

If the nation next Tuesday goes as most college students go, Dwight Eisenhower is a cinch for the presidency.

Results of a national poll of student opinion conducted recently by the Associated Collegiate Press show that Eisenhower is favored by 57 per cent of the cross-section interviewed. Stevenson by 33 per cent. Other candidates draw the votes of one per cent, while nine per cent are undecided.

Despite Ike's popularity, there are nearly as many Democrats as Republicans. Thirty-four percent claim to be Democrats, 38 per cent Republicans and 30 per cent independent.

Griders At Plattville Today

Wartburg's hopes for a respectable 1932 grid season will meet a big test today at 2 p.m. when the Knights meet Plattville Teachers on the Pioneer field in a non-conference tilt.

Currently holding a 3-1 mark, the Knights need victories on both Plattville and Simpson to improve on their 23 record in 1932. In their encounter with the Pioneers, the first meeting of the two in the pigskin classic, Wartburg will face the conference champions of the southern division of the Wisconsin State Teachers college league.

Final game on the 1932 grid schedule, the clash with Simpson of Indiana, has been moved back one day. Originally slated for next Friday, the tilt has been rescheduled for Saturday, Nov. 5, at 2 p.m. at Waverly Municipal field.

Luther, the only mutual foe, trotted the Pioneers, 34-7, and spanked Wartburg, 24-12. Plattville downed a Stevens Point teacher aggregation, 13-0, but Stevens Point dropped Luther by a 12-7 margin, thus giving coffee-quarterbacks plenty of leeway in picking the Wartburg-Plattville winner.

Wartburg will stick with its split-T and spread formation, hoping to pick up the necessary blocking for the spread that was neglected in the Loras game. All but one of the injured Knights will be ready for action. Larry Beckley is out for the rest of the season with a shoulder separation and Ken Wesenberg is troubled with a leg injury. Wesenberg is recovering to treatment, however, and may see limited action.

Plattville will throw a variety of formations against the Knights. Opposing off the straight T and using the single wing and double wing with its many variations will give the Pioneers a well-balanced offensive attack. The Pioneers boast an advantage over the Knights in weight, but Wartburg will have a slight margin in speed.

Autumn, the magnificent season when trees become naked and gaunt, and gnarled old men, spend their afternoons raking and cutting leaves, seems to be leaving us. It was cold in these parts early this week, colder than a witch's heart. Don't shake it if your alarm clock awakens you out of these fine mornings, and you look out of your window to discover a mantle of fluffy white snow covering the campus.

Yes, we're on the fringe of another winter. Santa Claus will be popping up soon. (I hope the good gentleman persuades Dr. John Hillner to present me with a D in Latin.) But before Santa makes his appearance, basketball will seize the attention of Wartburg students.

Although two football games must be played before the curtain closes on Wartburg's '32 grid season, fans are eager to crowd into the gymnasium to watch Art Bundgaard's champs commence another cage campaign. Despite the fact that Bundgaard's opening game with the Harlan Road Kings is nearly a month away, students are already talking basketball. They've been chatting about the hoop sport for two weeks, and they're convinced that the Knights will roll again this season.

Last season the Axmen, headed by spindly-legged Bill Adix, finished with a dazzling 17-7 record. They won the championship of the North division with comparative ease, and on March 4 journeyed to Cedar Rapids, where they met Parsons, king of the South division, for the Iowa conference tilt.

A great reserve player all season long, Adix was at his best in the meaningful game with the Kelly Greens. Ron Kester, Parsons' heralded pivot man, had the utmost to check Bill and retired to the bench early in the third quarter with five fouls. Battling the rims for 35 minutes, Adix led Wartburg to a convincing victory, 74-66.

It was a night of unprecedented glory for Wartburg. Never before had a Knight team won the conference crown in basketball. The moment the gun sounded to signify the end of the game, delirious fans rushed on to the court. Assembling around the Wartburg team, the happy cheering danced and howled. Cheers were raised to relative silence when Adix and his jubilant players accepted the big bronze trophy which now rests imposingly in Knights gymnasium.

The possibility of retaining the trophy is great. Bill Adix, Jack Bortack and Ken Elwood, regulars on the championship team, see back. Barry Bombard and John Kurtz saw plenty of action last season, and are on hand to fill the positions vacated by Paul Olmstead and Bobby Campbell. In addition to this quintet, Bundgaard has copious reserve power. He will not find it necessary to burden just five men.

'Mural Basketball' Will Start Nov. 10

Intramural basketball is scheduled to start in the Knights gymnasium Monday, Nov. 10, according to junior Jerry Rusta, intramurals committee chairman.

"Teams are now being organized," stated Rusta, "and a special meeting of all off-campus men interested in playing will be announced soon. All games this week will be played on Monday and Tuesday nights, but starting times have not yet been decided on."

End Wendy Liemohn Picked As Top Athlete Of October

By Gus Schumacher

Wendell Liemohn, Wartburg freshman in the first Wartburg athlete this year to receive the honor of "Athlete of the Month." He was recently picked by the "W" club, letterman's group, as the outstanding Knight football player for the month of October.

Son of Wartburg's choir director, Dr. Edwin Liemohn, "Wendy" admitted, "I have a lousy voice."

Nature may not have provided Wendy with a fine voice for singing, but it certainly blessed him with a talent for catching passes and tackling ball carriers.

Liemohn Rarely Out

Wendy is what grid fans call a "60-minute man," a fellow who plays the entire game without relief. In this era of two-rotation football he is a rare type of player.

When Wartburg is on the offensive Wendy always looms as a threat to Knight fans. On two occasions this season his supersonic hands grabbed touchdowns.

The first of his TD catches came in the early minutes of the Luther game when he intercepted a pass thrown by Cy Pick in the Norse end zone. His second TD grab, an amazing drive by Chuck Bose, came late in the third quarter of the Homecoming game with Wartburg brought Wartburg a thrilling, 14-12 upset victory.

'BV Catch' Lucky

Liemohn, flashing a wide grin, cheered a succinct comment on his catch in the BV game—"Luck!"

But Wartburg players and fans have seen Wendy grab many more passes in a spectacular manner to call his catches lucky.

If Wendy's pass catching is brilliant, his defensive play is equally sharp. When he is on defense he seems to be endowed with a sixth sense which tells him where the ball carrier is going. He repeatedly evades blockers to stop an end run a few yards behind the line of scrimmage.

WAA Tennis Crew Second In Playday

Ruth Clark and Dorothy Osborne, both freshmen, placed second in tennis football competition at the Luther college playday at Decorah last Saturday. Women's athletic associations from the La Crosse State Teachers college, Luther, ISU and Wartburg were represented.

Wartburg's bowling team, composed of Deleese John, junior Dorothy Krieger and Doris Breyfogel, sophomores, and Martin Zachary, freshman, took third place in sophomore competition. Miss Adeline Langrock of the phy ed department was in charge of the Wartburg group.

Loras came from behind last Saturday night to defeat Wartburg, 14-6, at Dubuque. The game marked the sixth straight victory for the undefeated, out-of-state Hawks. A week earlier the Hawks played 2,000 Homecoming fans with a 14-12 upset victory over Buena Vista.

Wartburg's only touchdown against Loras came midway in the first half. Wendy Liemohn recovered a fumble from the hands of Dubuque quarterback Bob Berlich on the Loras 41.

Six plays later Knight quarterback Fred Fritschel scored second time on 12 yards and a TD to give Wartburg a 6-0 lead with only 10 seconds gone in the second quarter. Fritschel's conversion attempt failed.

Duhawks Score On Pass

Later in the same period Steve Kirk intercepted a pass for the Duhawks and returned it 13 yards to his own 31. From there Loras started a scoring march climaxed by a 16-yard run from Bob Gilbreath to Dubuque's 10.

In the third quarter the Hawks again marched to a touchdown, going 31 yards in 11 plays, snapped the ball through the end zone for the final three yards and a TD. Fred Huber kicked both point tries for Loras.

Perhaps the most memorable event in the Wartburg-BV game was the previous Saturday when 18 seconds had been ticked off on the clock. Cy Pick returned the opening kickoff 60 yards for the Knights' first touchdown. Fritschel booted the extra point, putting Wartburg ahead, 7-0, and lead the Knights held at the midway point.

Tryon Returns

With the Beaver's star quarterback, Bill Tryon, back in action for the second half, BV began to shine. Chuck Forsberg raked 43 yards for Buena Vista's first tally, making the score 1-6. Charley Branstetter's conversion attempt failed.

A 23-yard pass from Chuck Bose to Liemohn closed for the Knights six-point and Fritschel's conversion gave the Knights a 6-6 tie. The final game sounded, Buena Vista scored again on a 12-yard dash by Branstetter.

... The radio is on. Leave us turn on KWAR and listen to that great program, "The Super Novelty Review," a Snyder production. They have a lovely theme. Over the din comes Kicker's voice: "How come you're late, Bill?" And Wiederanders replies, "The program started before I got here."

... Then they play a record.

... It was the first day of school. All the littl' freshmen registered and Mamma and Daddy weighed down with their trunks helped them move into their campus homes. "Burtley Janssen moved into Martin Annex. When Thurley went up to her room she saw another girl there. 'Oh,' said Thurley, 'are you my roommate?'"

... The other day Dr. Neumann gave a test. Everyone studied for the test. The test was in world literature. It was a hunderd or so test. After the test was corrected, Dr. Neumann confided to his Ann, lit. class, "You know, one thing I couldn't understand. Most of the class answered question 42 right. The answer was 'One Thousand and One Nights.' But," he continued, "most of them wrote it 'One Thousand and One Knights.'"

Opinions Vary On Campus Social Life

By George Manuvas

What's wrong with Wartburg social life? General opinion of a number of students interviewed this week indicates we need something new. According to two transfer students, however, the recreational and social opportunities here are better than at the schools they formerly attended.

Questions asked were, "What do you think of the present social life situation?" and "How could it be improved?" As would be expected, the latter question had most of the interviewees stumped. A number of women mentioned that the social life isn't so bad—the men just need a little more spark!

"One of the main troubles," ventured Harold Gronstal, junior pre-theological student, "is that one weekend will be filled with entertainment while the next one will have nothing going on. It would help if social gatherings were spread out better."

Interfering last studying long enough to answer Leatrice Dockett, freshman, said bluntly, "I think it's kind of dead. I'd like to have roller skating parties and more alcohol parties."

"We need more original entertainment like Uncle Herb's talent show," stated Lowell Hemmen, junior transfer student from Fort Hays State Teachers college, Kan.

"Social life wasn't as much of a problem at Fort Hays, because most of the students went home weekends. Swimming, square dancing, parties and dances after games kept things lively."

"Why don't we have a few more mixers and parties?" asked Dan Voets, freshman. "I don't think the students know each other well enough yet. There should be some use for that swing band—I think it's pretty good!"

Surprised at being approached for an interview, Gerale Malmim, sophomore transfer from Valparaiso, thought the social situation was generally good here.

Coming from a university where social life is supposed to be exceptional, she asserted, "I'm pretty well satisfied with the parties, movies and square dances we have here."

Surrounded by a maze of open philosophy books, Bonita Mager, junior transfer student from Northern State Teachers college, Aberdeen, S. D., said, "I don't think it's adequate, although the social situation at NSFC wasn't as good as it is here. But I think students could make their own fun. Some of us need our attitudes changed a little."

"There should be more organization in recreational planning," stated Ronald Retzlaff, sophomore. "We need something to keep this from becoming a suitcase college."

Sandy Langlois, senior music major, had this to say:

"I don't think there are enough dress-up functions, for one thing, but most of all we need a little cooperation on the part of students. We shouldn't have to expect just a few to provide entertainment for all of us."
